

Get to Know Global Advocaten

We are an exclusive network of independent law firms, connecting clients with legal counsel worldwide. More than simply a directory of contacts, we are a community of like-minded individuals from prestigious law firms across the globe, working together to make a difference for our clients. Our shared knowledge provides insight and expertise on the complex challenges you face, regardless of where you are in the world.

Since 1990, Global Advocaten has developed and fostered long-term relationships among members to create a global network that clients can rely on. Throughout its history, Global Advocaten's commitment to providing exceptional legal services has remained unwavering.

As part of our commitment to provide unparalleled legal support and facilitate seamless cross-border business activities, Global Advocaten is excited to present a refreshed identity. This rebranding reflects our continued evolution and dedication to supporting global enterprises as they conduct business and expand their operations worldwide.

We invite you to explore the new Global Advocaten website and experience firsthand how we are facilitating "Business without borders" within our prestigious community of legal professionals.
