Experience

Brittany is Senior Counsel to the firm. She specializes in complex business litigation, with an emphasis on antitrust and unfair competition issues. She has represented both plaintiffs and defendants in complex cases in state and federal court throughout all stages of litigation. Prior to joining the firm, Brittany worked at a firm that represented plaintiffs in complex class actions and a boutique trial firm where her practice focused on multiparty litigation involving catastrophic property damage. Prior to entering private practice, Brittany worked as a Research Attorney for the Honorable Peter Busch in the Law & Motion Department at the San Francisco Superior Court.
